ORDER

LC/1/67

The following notification from the Government of India, Ministry of Labour, Employment and Rehabilitation, New Delhi, is hereby republished for the information of all concerned.

By order and in the name of the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu.

D. V. Sawant, Deputy Secretary, Industries and Labour Department.

Panaji, 1st August, 1967.

Notification

Date: 4th July, 1967

S.O.—Whereas the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary to appoint a Commission of Inquiry for the purpose of making an inquiry into a definite matter of public importance, namely, security of jobs in the oil companies hereinafter mentioned;

Now, Therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952 (60 of 1952), the Central Government hereby appoints a Commission of Inquiry consisting of Shri B. N. Cokhale, retired judge of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay to inquire into and report within a period of six months from the date of the publication of this notification in the official gazette on the following matters, namely:—

- (1) the number of surplus workmen on the rolls of Burmah-shell Oil Storage and Distribution Company of India Limited, Esso Standard Eastern Limited and Caltex (India) Limited as on the 1st January, 1965, 1966 and 1967.
- (2) the reasons for the said workmen becoming surplus and in particular, the extent to which they became surplus as a result of
  - (a) the introduction of contract labour system in the said companies;
  - (b) the recruitment of casual labour by the said companies;
  - (c) the discontinuance of kerosene distribution in tins and closing down of the tin plants by the said companies;
  - (d) the rationalization of business and working methods of the said companies;
  - (e) the introduction of automatic devices including accounting machines, and computers by the said companies.
- (3) the methods (including early voluntary retirement schemes and voluntary separation schemes, if any) adopted by the said companies to deal with the surplus workmen.
- (4) the manner in which the said methods were implemented.
- (5) the extent to which the said methods and their implementation were just, proper and in accordance with law.

(6) if any of the methods adopted to deal with the surplus workmen or the implementation thereof was not just, proper or in accordance with law, the action, which, in the opinion of the Commission, should be taken by Government to ensure relief to the workers concerned.

And Whereas the Central Government is of opinion that having regard to the nature of the inquiry to be made and other circumstances of the case, all the provisions of sub-section (2), sub-section (3), sub-section (4) and sub-section (5) of section 5 of the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952 should be made applicable to the Commission, the Central Government hereby directs that all the said provisions shall apply to the Commission.

Mormugao Port Trust

Notification

MPT/IGA(E. 916)/67

As required under Section 124 of the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963, the following Regulations which have been adopted by the Board of Trustees are hereby published.

Draft amendments to the Mormugao Port Employees' (Temporary Service) Regulations 1964

I. Add the following proviso after the second proviso to Regulation 7(I):—

Provided further that when the services of a quasi-permanent employee are terminated under sub-clause (ii) he shall be given three months' notice and, if in any case, such notice is not given, then with the sanction of the authority competent to terminate the services of such an employee, a sum equivalent to his pay plus allowances for the period of notice, or, as the case may be, for the period by which the notice actually given to him falls short of three months, shall be paid to him at the same rates at which he was drawing them immediately before the termination of his services and, if he is entitled to any gratuity, such gratuity shall not be paid for the period in respect of which he receives a sum in lieu of notice.

II. Substitute the following for the existing Regulation 11:—

11. Terminal gratuity payable to temporary and quasi-permanent employees.

A temporary and quasi-permanent employee who dies while in service or retires or is discharged for reasons other than by way of disciplinary measure or resignation after rendering a continuous service of not less than ten years, shall be granted a gratuity at the rate of one month's pay for each completed year of service, subject to a maximum of Rs. 12,000 or 12 months' pay, whichever is less. The gratuity shall be calculated on the average of last twelve months' pay.

Provided that the grant of gratuity under this regulation shall be subject to the service rendered by the employee concerned being held by the authority competent to appoint him to be satisfactory.

Provided further that no gratuity shall be admissible in a case where the employee concerned resigns his post or is removed or dismissed from service as a disciplinary measure.

Provided further that no gratuity shall be admissible under this regulation to an employee reemployed after retirement.

Provided further that nothing in this regulation shall apply to persons borne on an establishment to which Contributory Provident Fund benefits or other similar benefits are attached.

Explanation: — «Pay» for the purpose of this regulation shall include special pay, personal pay and other emoluments classed as «Pay».

By order,
Shivakumar Dhindaw, Secretary.

Corrigendum

The following printing mistakes occurred in the publication of the Notification No. MPT/IGA(E.986)/66 of Mormugao Port Trust relating to the Mormugao Port Employees (C. P. F. Special Contribution) Regulations in the Government Gazettes Nos. 15 and 16 (Series I) dated the 14th and 21st July, 1966 respectively, are hereby corrected.

1) In regulation 4(2) (b) the word «five» should be inserted between «fifty» and «years».

2) In regulation 6 the words «shall be final» should be added after the word «thereon».
